Waldy Simson's expo runs from October 17th to 31st

Surinam artis Waldy Ricardo Simson is showing his work in the activity room of the Biblioteca Nacional in the Madurostraat till October 31st. His signature work is Tiffany- artwork and he recently had a successful expo at the Instituto di Cultura. The versatile artist also paints, does papercut work and colour compositions as well as ceramics. He published a book called 'Liederen en Gedichten van Simson.' The artist is showing several paintings, made together with his six-year-old son Jurio Guiseppe Simson, who lives in Holland.

The exhibition of Waldy Simson was officially opened yesterday: Lenny Denz spoke the words of welcome and Annie Ho A Sjoie recited the following poems 'Wan Moro,' 'Emigratie,' 'Carolinakreek 1' and 'Sranan.' She was accompanied by Michel van Samson, Vocaal Ensemble Sranan, the choir of Rufo Odor and speeches accompanied the opening ceremony. John Hessen and family had the honour of performing the opening. The motto of Simson's expo is 'Give Art a Valuable Place in Your Life'
